TEACHING EXPERIENCE

I have over 10 years teaching experience across a range of creative disciplines and age groups from 1 year to mature age. I also have some experience developing and delivering classes for children and adults with special needs [IHC, adult artists with mental illness and children with Aspergers syndrome]

More recently, the majority of my work has been with first year art and design students at Massey University.

ART BASED

Massey University 2003-2006

Classes delivered: Art and design studio; Drawing for art studio; Communication skills for artists and designers [basic writing skills]; Cultural Identity [relief teaching]

Weltec Petone 2003-2004

Classes developed and delivered: 10 week basics sculpture program for the accelerator/folio preparation course [carving, casting, assembly, drawing in 3 dimensions, modeling]; Drawing for first year diploma/degree; Contextual studies for 1st and 2nd year students.

ARTIST RESIDENCIES

For each artist residency I developed and delivered specific workshops for the participants.

IHC art studio Petone 2008 8 week sculpture workshop series. Papier mache animals.

Island Bay Primary School 2007 2 week paper rock making workshop residency with the entire school. I also opened up my studio to volunteer rock makers. 500 participants from ages 3-83.

IHC art studio Petone 2006 - 8 week jewellery and accessories series.

Pablo's art studio 2006 10 week installation series and residency

Marsden Collegiate School 2001 - 6 week residency with workshops for year 12 and 13 students.

PRIMARY AGED

Craftcamp Holiday Workshops 2010: Developed and delivered independent craft workshops, Wellington NZ

Wellington City Gallery: Developed and delivered school holiday art workshops in response to Force Field by Fiona Hall, 2008, Midnight Becomes You, by Louise Weaver, 2003 and In Another Life, the Patricia Picinini exhibition 2006.
